Dear Colleagues and Friends in SE,

I am just sending you our latest news from the UTF field. For now there is more clarity in What and When and Who is doing Where :-)

There are 3 subgroups established yet:

1. Translation Team - working on SCOPE translation into 20! languages and now is the priority to translate materials for children <http://cesiprosyrii.org/publikace/> (you can download it in Ukrainen also for the refugee mums). There will be tutorial from Maggie Kline hopefully by the end of this week - you can check-it on this YouTube channel

If you are interested in connecting to this Team, you can directly contact Liana, our angel. She is really working hard on leading the translation team! Big Respect and

Appreciation! lianadugaro.coach@gmail.com

2. Social media Team - our social media team is taking care of creating and posting the materials on our EASE FB and is led by really experienced Lara - lara.dunkel@gmx.de. So if you are interested in this area, please, don't hesitate to contact her.

3. Resilience Connection Team - and last but not least is our Resilience Connection Team lead by Claudia and Danica (claudiavillagra@gmx.de and danica@danicalynch.com). This amazing project is for supporting helpers and for now there is a two weeks pilot - and we will see how it will be. If you are interested to help in these supportive evenings, you are very welcome to fill this

For our materials there is the EASE website's new page just for it and now it is in the process of creation - until that you can go for materials to our HUB

So for now - there will be no big meetings of UTF anymore and if you have anything to share and join any of these subgroups, please feel free to contact them. If you have anything else for sharing, please feel free to contact us on seukrainetaskforce@traumahealing.org - there are "partnership meetings" every Monday from 7 pm, so we can find some time for meeting and sharing ideas...

With deepest gratitude and appreciation to you all!

Zlata
